

Tuesday noon -

Mr Alfred Hussey.

The young ^{Ladies} at the West part of the city have joined themselves into a society, of which I am President, to assist indigent children, having thought it would be pleasant to admit gentlemen in the evening, we have also invited them to become members. It would gratify us if you would consent to be one of our members. We meet on Friday evening 7 O'clock at the house of Miss Johannett's 13th Vine Street.
I will with pleasure introduce you there. Should you wish to know more about the Society, if you will take the trouble to call & see us at 36 Spring Street, where you will hear all particulars -

Respectfully yrs

A. H. Norwood,

For

Mr Alfred Hussey

Loan of Horace Ludden Esq
Boston.
